

INTERNSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

Title: Spring 2021

Schedule: Flexible, January through May, Monday – Friday (with possibility of extension)

Reporting to: Program Director, Climate & Environmental Justice

Organizational Background

Founded almost 50 years ago, the Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility (ICCR) is a pioneer coalition of over 300 socially responsible investors including faith-based communities, labor unions, and others who leverage their investments to hold corporations accountable for the social and environmental impacts of their operations. Our membership collectively represents over $500 billion in invested capital.

ICCR members and staff engage hundreds of multinational corporations annually to promote more sustainable and just practices because we believe in doing so, companies will secure a better future for their employees, their customers, and their shareholders. We do this through on-going engagement and dialogue with corporate management on a range of social and environmental issues that impact communities in the U.S. and globally, as well as by filing shareholder proposals, which are publicly presented at companies' shareholder meetings.

Position Summary

ICCR is seeking candidates for an internship in climate change to provide research support for investor campaigns focused on a Just Transition to a clean energy economy. ICCR members are engaging energy utilities on Just Transition, oil & gas companies on methane management and disclosure, and banks on measuring and reducing financed emissions. Company-level research is needed to support investor engagements. In addition, sector level research would be helpful to understand the opportunities and issues associated with adoption of science-based targets for GHG emissions reductions and transition planning.

The internship period is scheduled to run from January through May, with the possibility of extension. Applicants should be able to commit to 10-15 hours per week on average, with flexibility.

Benefits for Intern

The Interns will make a tremendous contribution to important work of an organization that helped to found and continues to shape the corporate social responsibility movement. The Interns will learn the importance of shareholder activism and documenting company progress. Where possible, the Interns will be given the opportunity to engage with ICCR program staff (such as attending program/staff meetings and conference calls with ICCR members) to gain a better understanding of the issues and the field of corporate social responsibility.

Qualifications

- Applicants must be currently enrolled in, or recently graduated from, a graduate degree program.
- Experience with, knowledge of, and/or passion for corporate social responsibility, climate solutions, and sustainability is a plus.
- Must be self-motivated, and able to work independently.
- Must have excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Interns should be organized, methodical, and possess strong time management skills.
- Computer and software knowledge – proficient in Microsoft Word (experience with Microsoft Excel and Google Workspace is a plus).

Your application should include:

- A cover letter identifying your qualifications
- A resume
