

INTERNSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

Title: Summer Internship

Schedule: June – August 2019, Monday – Thursday

Organizational Background

Founded over 45 years ago, the Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility (ICCR) is a pioneer coalition of over 300 socially responsible investors including faith-based communities, labor unions, and others who leverage their investments to hold corporations accountable for the social and environmental impacts of their operations. Our membership collectively represents over $400 billion in invested capital.

ICCR members and staff engage hundreds of multinational corporations annually to promote more sustainable and just practices because we believe in doing so, companies will secure a better future for their employees, their customers, and their shareholders. We do this through on-going engagement and dialogue with corporate management on a range of social and environmental issues that impact communities in the U.S. and globally, as well as by filing shareholder proposals, which are publicly presented at companies' shareholder meetings.

Position Summary

ICCR works with a coalition of investors who engage with a wide array of companies, NGOs and other stakeholders to improve water management and increase reporting on water issues that pose risks to businesses, communities and the environment.

ICCR is seeking a graduate student this summer to help us advance our work on analyzing and addressing risks related to the food, beverage, oil and gas sector. While providing some administrative support, this research intern will primarily work across various topic areas using skills ranging in research, quantitative analysis and writing (short memos, case studies, data narratives etc.).

The role will include:

- Research on corporate commitments across issues, tracking news flow and pulling examples of risk
- Preparing presentations/briefs for investors
- Highlight best practice examples across issues/sectors
- Identifying target companies for engagement
- Updating internal engagement documents
- Map other stakeholders working to influence corporate behavior
- Research large institutional investors for focus companies
- Other general research to support program staff

The internship period is scheduled to run from June to September 2018.

Benefits for Intern

The intern will learn about the work of corporate engagement from seasoned practitioners, and about the how companies are addressing sustainability issues and the regulatory environment and its impact on sustainability. The intern will also learn how investors leverage their relationship with companies to impart positive change.

Qualifications

- Applicants must be currently enrolled in, or recently graduated from, a graduate degree program.
- Experience and knowledge of food justice issues, water sustainability, corporate social responsibility, human rights, business, and or sustainability issues
- Must be self-motivated, and able to work independently
- Must have excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Intern should be organized and methodical.

Your application should include:

- A cover letter identifying your qualifications
- A resume
