

The Chair of the Elevance Health (ELV) Governance Committee, Bahija Jallal, deserves against votes

Ms. Bahija Jallal is ultimately responsible for ELV shareholders not having the ability to vote on a proposal for annual election of each ELV director. This proposal routinely receives 95% votes at a wide range of major companies.

ELV could be named to a 2026 Hall of Shame list of companies taking blatant advantage of a new Securities and Exchange Commission policy. ELV took advantage of the new Securities and Exchange Commission policy of giving free ride letters in as fast as 2-days to any company that submits a one-sentence excuse for not including a shareholder proposal in its 2026 annual meeting proxy.

Preventing ELV shareholders from voting on this important topic is worse because this proposal topic won 75% support at the 2019 ELV annual meeting.

Ms. Jallal was asked to reconsider the ELV free ride letter in a February 23, 2026 letter. Ms. Jallal lacked the decorum to reply.
