

The Shareholder Right to Act by Written Consent Proposal 6 Deserves American Airlines (AAL) Shareholder Support

Shareholders acting by written consent and calling for a special shareholder meeting are 2 means that shareholders of a company can use to put forth a proposal on a timely basis without waiting for the annual shareholder meeting.

According to state law AAL shareholders can have the right to act by written consent and the right to call for special shareholder meeting. Both rights allow shareholders to take action between annual meetings.

Shame on AAL for suggesting that its shareholders limit themselves to one shareholder right when AAL shareholders are entitled to 2 shareholder rights under state law. AAL shareholders are best served when they have both rights.

Written consent is a shareholder right that requires the formal backing of a AAL majority based on all shares outstanding. This majority support requirement in reality is much more than majority support because it is not economically possible to contact a significant percent of AAL shares to get their formal backing.

Thus for an issue to still get majority support, based on all shares outstanding, under written consent it could easily need more than 60% support from the AAL shares are economically possible to reach. How can AAL be opposed to a 60% majority? Being opposed to this proposal means being opposed to decisions by a 60% majority of AAL shareholders.

Please be in favor of 60% majority decisions and vote for a Shareholder Right to Act by Written Consent – Proposal 6
